Golf opportunities for kids start June 20

Dearborn Hills Course offers a pair of programs

DEARBORN, Mich. – Golf enthusiasts, aged 9-15, are invited to register for the Dearborn Recreation & Parks Department's "Drivers" or "Putters" programs, both of which begin June 20.

The Drivers and Putters programs, offered at the Robert Herndon Dearborn Hills Golf Course on Tuesdays, beginning at 9:30 a.m., combine instruction with several weeks of league play.

The Putters program, for youngsters ages 9-11, offers two, four-week sessions—June 20-July 18 (no meeting July 4) and July 25-August 15—which feature instructional clinics and three-to-six holes of league play.

Cost: $70, which includes a $26 non-refundable greens fee.

The Drivers program, for youngsters ages 12-15, begins with an instructional clinic June 20 and includes six weeks of nine-hole league play and an end-of-the-season scramble.

Cost: $135, which includes a $40 non-refundable greens fee.

Register at the Robert Herndon Dearborn Hills Golf Course on Telegraph, just north of Michigan Ave.

Call (313) 563-4653 for further information.
